Mr E S Morgan

At the Union primary meeting in the North Portland precinct last March, E. S. Morgan, whose name now appears on the Democratic ticket for County Clerk, was present for the purpose of participating in the meeting. Prior to voting for delegates to the Union County Convention, the following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That all who vote at this meeting pledge themselves to vote the regular Union ticket at the next June election.

Mr E. S. Morgan voted at this meeting, and not only thus pledged himself to vote the regular Union ticket at the coming election, but as the records of the precinct meeting show, he was also a candidate for delegate to the Union County Convention and received 40 votes therefor, out of 203 ballots cast in the North Portland precinct. His name also appears upon the record in the list of those who voted at that meeting. Yet E. S. Morgan, though then professing to be a member of the Union party and to believe that Copperheads are traitors, and though then pledging himself to vote the Union ticket at the coming election, now affiliates with the men whom he denounced only a short time ago, abandons the pledge which he gave at a meeting in which he participated, and deliberately forsakes the Union party. This is a strange way to maintain a character for political rectitude.

Political Proscription.

PORTLAND, May 31.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

In reply to the charge of the OREGONIAN that the proprietor of the Herald had discharged compositors because of their political opinions, the Herald of Wednesday last contained the following:

"The assertion that we discharged two printers because they were Union men is false. When the Herald was started, we expressly reserved the right—and it was so understood by all the office—to fill two of the cases ourself. The two printers whom we discharged, kept their cases much longer than was originally designed, and were finally displaced by us not because they were 'Union men' but because, in exact accordance with previous understanding, somebody had to vacate his place, and because they were unmarried men,—we preferring, other things being equal, to give men with families the preference over those who are single."

In answer to the foregoing, I desire to make a brief statement of facts. Mr. Henry Millard and myself, who are the compositors referred to, were among those first given situations on the paper. It is true that Mr. Abbott "expressly reserved the right—and it was so understood by all the office—to fill two of the cases." One of the situations thus reserved was filled by the party for whom it was intended at the time the paper started, the other was temporarily filled by another printer till the party to whom it had been promised should arrive from California. It was "understood by all the office" that I held that situation temporarily. Mr. Millard was discharged before the compositor from California arrived here, and to make room for another man—a Democrat—who had been ousted from the local department. When the California compositor claimed the situation promised him, was he given the one that was reserved for him? No. Without a moment's warning, and without just cause, I was discharged as Mr. Millard had been. We were not holding situations temporarily. Mr. Abbott knows this to be true, and so does every man in his office. If we had been, why should two other compositors—both of them Democrats—have voluntarily surrendered their situations, declaring that they would in no way be connected with an office where such injustice was done?

It was not to be expected that the "Editor of the Herald" would tell us in plain terms that he discharged us because we were Unionists, but that he did so, no man cognizant of the facts for an instant doubts. Certainly we did not suffer because we are "unmarried men," as there were several others there equally unfortunate—but they happened to be Democrats. We were the only Unionists in the office, and they gave us our quietus at their earliest opportunity.

It is not without extreme reluctance, Mr. Editor, that I have any part in ventilating this shabby conduct of the Editor of the Herald. Although feeling keenly the injustice I have suffered, it would have suited me better if the Herald had not so foolishly courted its publicity. Even at the risk of losing caste among printers where the reasons for my summary discharge are not known, I should have been content to remain silent regarding it. But since the matter has got into print, and the Editor of the Herald, after so grossly wronging us, seeks to justify himself by a misstatement of facts, I have thought it my duty both to Mr. Millard and myself that the truth should be known.

Very respectfully,
H. M. BIDEN.

Remember Them

If there are any voters who have voted with the Union party for the last five years, and now that the war is over, think of voting with the Democracy we ask such to remember the attitude which the Democrats of this State assumed when the rebellion began. It has not, nor ever can escape your recollection that when the news of the fall of Fort Sumter reached Oregon, and when patriotic men in every part of this State, without regard to former party associations, resolved to unfurl the flag of their country and if need be, defend it to the death, the men who now compose the Democratic party did not want the flag upreared—great numbers of them in every county swearing that the banner of the Union should not be raised among them. The Union men of this State well remember that in 1861, we were threatened with civil war in Oregon if we persisted in raising the flag—that this act would inevitably lead to resistance and bloodshed. And who uttered these threats? Democrats, and none but Democrats. Democrats advised the people of Oregon to be "neutral" in the contest—"TO RAISE NO FLAGS ON EITHER SIDE,"—to keep down all "political excitement." Union men, if you forget everything else in the record of the Democratic party, you cannot forget that when the crisis came which was to decide whether the country should live or die, the men who now compose the Democratic party of this State threw their influence on the side of the rebels, swore with terrible vehemence that the flag should not be unfurled in Oregon, and declared as the secessionist who now edits the Oregon Herald did, that "THE UNION WAS DISSOLVED, NEVER TO BE RE-UNITED." When you go to the polls to cast your ballots, remember what Democrats said and did in 1861.

> Who can name a living man who was notoriously false to the Government in both our foreign wars, who is not now an honored member of this so-called Union party? —Herald, June 1st.

We can name several men who were "notoriously false to the government" during the late domestic rebellion, who are not honored members of the Union party; and who are dishonored members of the Democratic party. We name M. H. Abbott who was "notoriously false to the Government," when he published articles in the Pike County Democrat, favoring a North-western Confederacy, and declaring the "Union dissolved, never again to be restored." Shall we go on? Then, we name Beriah Brown who does the brains for the Herald, while Abbott does the "responsibility." When the Government called for 75,000 men to protect the Capitol then threatened and to quell the insurrection then prevailing in seven States, did not you, Beriah Brown, declare that there was no authority under the constitution to coerce the rebels? And did'nt you say time and again that the call for those troops was an unconstitutional act? And did'nt you say, after the war had become fierce and general in eleven States and when nothing but fighting down the rebellion could save the government, that it was an "unholy war" and ought to cease? Did you not endorse the California Democratic Platform which declared in favor of recognition of the independence of the Southern Confederacy, as the first alternative after cessation of hostilities and an attempt at compromise? Did you not endorse the Chicago Platform, which demanded a cessation of war, and declared the war "a failure?" Did you not talk and write to encourage opposition to the prosecution of the war? Remember, Beriah, when you answer that the Democratic Press, like the Pike County Democrat and other evils that men do, live after them, to be witnesses.

Shall we go on? Then we name James D. Fay who was "notoriously false to the government" when he published the declaration—"I pronounce this war an unholy crusade against the natural right of secession—carried on by murderers and thieves for rapine and plunder." He was false to the government when he said—"I believe in the right of secession as a Divine right, and demand that the South be allowed to go in peace." He was false to the government again when he said,—"I will never by act or vote give aid to any person who has in any way contributed to the support of this war." You, Copperheads, are false to the government when you vote to send such a secessionist to Congress.

Shall we go on? Then, we name James K. Kelly, who held to the same opinions as you, Beriah, and your pets of secession traitors, J. D. Fay and James O'Meara. We name Jno C. Bell, N. T. Caton—twin operators in the treasonable order of "Old Guards." We name Lafayette Lane, who opposed the organization of the State Militia for State defense, and the raising of volunteers in Oregon for the U. S. army, at a time when he knew there were armed and drilled traitors all over the State, organized for resistance to United States authority. Were we to name any man who talked, acted, wrote and voted with the Democratic party during the war, he is the man who was "notoriously false to the government.

Why They Oppose Civil Rights.

What is the cause of the opposition of the Democracy to the law of Civil Rights? By their own acknowledgment, simply this: If the negro is given the right to protect himself and his property by law, then, according to the Democratic idea, he becomes the equal of the white man. The conduct of the Democracy proves that it is a great consolation for them to feel that there is a race lower and meaner than themselves. And to keep this race below themselves, it is necessary, as they think, to oppress them with unequal laws. This is the whole of the Democratic idea of the question of Civil Rights, and is the cause of their opposition to it. Moreover, it is the only remaining "principle" on which the party relies, and is in every sense their entire stock in trade.

"Tyranny" of Government by a Majority

The Democratic orators and journalists continue their cant about the "tyranny of majorities." The conduct of the majority in Congress is "tyrannical," and the rule of the loyal majority of the people of the United States has long been the most unbearable of "tyrannies" in the estimation of the Northern and Southern Democracy. Of course, government by a minority, since majorities are "tyrannical," would be very favorable to liberty. "Majorities shall govern," is the doctrine of the loyal people of the country. "Minorities shall govern, or we will fight," is the disloyal Democratic doctrine. Which shall prevail?

Impudent and Brazen Misrepresentation

> If Democratic policy and Democratic principles—the pernicious doctrine of State rights'—were the cause of secession and rebellion, the alleged fruits would have been manifested at some period during a Democratic administration.—Herald, June 1st.

By implication, the above extract says that the alleged fruits of the "pernicious doctrine of State rights" were never manifested "during a Democratic administration. The Herald wishes its readers to understand that Secession which was the legitimate fruit of the 'pernicious doctrine of State rights,' did not take place during a Democratic administration.

In disproof of that assertion, than which we have seen nothing more brazenly false in any print other than the Herald, we here furnish a few facts from the historical record of the rebellion. Will the Herald undertake to deny or evade the facts? The rebellion record shows the following:

South Carolina passed the Ordinance of secession on the 20th day of December, 1860, seventy-three days before the end of Buchanan's term. BUCHANAN AND EVERY MEMBER OF HIS CABINET WERE DEMOCRATS.

Mississippi seceded January 9th, 1861, fifty-three days before Buchanan's term ended.

Florida seceded January 10th, fifty two days before the end of a Democratic administration.

Alabama seceded January 11th, 1861, fifty-one days before the close of Buchanan's term.

Louisiana seceded January 26th, 1861, thirty eight days before the Democratic administration closed.

Texas seceded February 1st, 1861, thirty two days before the close of Buchanan's Democratic administration.

South Carolina, Mississippi, Florida, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana and Texas, each and every one of them, pleaded the "pernicious doctrine of State rights" as a full and complete justification for their acts of secession.

They did not plead their desire for, and inability to effect a compromise, did they, Beriah? Nor did they plead the election of Lincoln, in justification, as did you, Beriah and Abbott and your fellow copperheads. They did not plead that secession sprung from sudden passion inspired by the success of what copperheads called "a sectional President," did they, Beriah? Let distinguished Democrats answer.

When the South Carolina Secession Convention met, General D. F. Jamison, temporary President, said in opening the proceedings:

> I trust we shall not be diverted from our purpose by any dictates from without.

Charles G. Memminger, afterwards Confederate Secretary of State, said:

> We came not to make, but to unmake, a government.

A dispatch from A. B. Moore, then Governor of Alabama, was then read, saying:

> Tell the Convention to listen to no proposition of compromise or delay.

Mr. Parker, a member of the Convention, said:

> It is no spasmodic effort that has come suddenly upon us, it has been gradually culminating for a long period of thirty years.

Mr. Inglis said:

> As my friend (Mr. Parker) has said, most of us have had this matter under consideration for the last twenty years.

Lawrence M. Keitt said:

> I have been engaged in this movement ever since I entered political life. * * * We have carried the body of this Union to its last resting place, and now we will drop the flag over its grave.

Robert Barnwell Rhett said:

> The secession of South Carolina is not the event of a day. It is not anything produced by Mr. Lincoln's election, or by the non-execution of the Fugitive Slave Law. It is a matter which has been gathering head for thirty years.

Here, then, we have the testimony of the originators of the secession movement, that the "pernicious doctrine of State Rights" had been working and "manifesting itself" under every Democratic administration, from Jackson down to the end of the Democratic term of Buchanan. The whole scheme was concocted by Democrats, under a Democratic administration. Democrats robbed the Treasury and the Government arsenals for the benefit of the secession movement. Seven States had seceded, forts had been captured, arsenals and mints seized, while a Democratic President occupied the chair of Chief Magistrate, not only refusing to do anything to prevent the movement, but declaring that the Government had no authority under the constitution to coerce and prevent the insurrection. The Democratic party of the North took the same ground and continued throughout the war to declare that the right to coerce did not exist in the constitution. They continued to declare that the war was unconstitutionally begun. Democratic members of Congress declared again and again that "a war commenced in an unconstitutional manner could only be carried on in an unconstitutional way." Democratic members of Congress boasted that they "had never voted a man or a dollar for the war." Democrats individually, and in party conventions declared it an unholy war and demanded a cessation of hostilities. The Chicago Democratic National Convention declared by resolution the war "a failure" and demanded peace. In a thousand ways, in every neighborhood, county and State, Democrats manifested their opposition to the beginning and the prosecution of the war. The clear recollection of it is in the minds of every man, woman and then living child. Democrats know that their conduct is clearly remembered and yet with the effrontery of Satan and more than his talent for falsehood, they now tell us that "Democrats did nothing to embarrass the administration in the prosecution of the war!" If Democrats in this canvass cannot eclipse Satan and all his legions, in effrontery and falsehood, Satan and his legions are surely pre-eminent in those attributes for the remainder of eternity.

LOOK FOR MIXED TICKETS.—A report was in circulation last evening to the effect that a mixed independent ticket is to be brought out to-day. It is proposed, as we understand, to circulate tickets bearing the names of some of the regularly nominated Union candidates, with the names of certain Independents substituted for the others. Now it will be impossible for any of these Independents to be elected, and all they can do is to draw off a few of the votes which would otherwise be thrown for the regular nominees. Mr. R. Mendenhall, we believe, is at the head of the movement. This gentleman has a chronic desire to run "independent." In 1858 he ran as an independent in Polk county, receiving 18 votes—about the number he will be likely to get on Monday next. Two years ago he bore a prominent part in the "bolting" movement in Washington county. Some men have a peculiar talent for making themselves the tools of the Copperhead Democracy, and Mr. Mendenhall seems not to be an exception to the number.

WHAT "WE" DID.—The Democracy are boasting loudly that "we" (they) put down the rebellion. They will be claiming next that the sole honor of having abolished slavery belongs also to them.

State Items.

The Mountaineer of the 1st says: "Company "I," 1st U. S. Cavalry, arrived at this place last evening en route for Camp Watson. It is understood that Gen. Steele will be here this evening with his staff, and will take Company "I," U. S. Cavalry, to-wit Fort Dalles, to Camp Lyon as his escort. Gens. Halleck and Steele have an appointment to meet at Camp Lyon on June 10th."

The Columbia river at the Dalles, says the Mountaineer of the 31st ult., during the past twenty-four hours had risen about eighteen inches. The dining room floor of the Umatilla House has about one inch of water in a part of it, and several stores along the line of Main street are beginning to leak. The water now is about twelve inches of being on the railroad track. Houses are in demand, and as a consequence, rents are up. This has been a very busy day on Main Street, everybody is either moving or making arrangements to do so. The O. S. N. Company's steamer Dalles has been engaged in hauling rock to weigh down the railroad bridge, which, we understand, has raised a little. We are anxiously awaiting our turn. Pleasant thing, moving a printing office, we appreciate it highly, as do all printers.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

DATES TO MAY 29.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, May 26.—The House worked on the tax bill all day completing its consideration in committee of the whole. The blanks for salaries were filled up as follows: Commissioner of Internal Revenue, $4,000; Assistant Commissioner, $3,500; two deputy commissioners, $2,500; Cashier, $3,000; Solicitor, $4,000; seven Heads of Divisions $2,500. The bill of Special Commissioner whose duty it shall be to examine the workings of the revenue system and suggest amendments was created, with a salary of $[illegible]. Stevens moved that this Special Commissioner be elected by Congress, and said: "I am done with giving patronage to the Secretary of the Treasury when it can be avoided. It has already said he will stand on the policy of the President. He this morning distinctly so informed a member of the House who called upon him for an appointment. If [illegible] is this we build up a wall against such tyranny [illegible] the mail service in office, and I have already ascertained that four cabinet ministers of the President have made the same declaration. If I were a little stronger and shall be in a week, I think I would let those officers know that this is a grand inquest of the nation before which men who are guilty of disobedience to office shall be brought and their cases presented to another tribunal to try them. [Excitement and cries of good.] We are recreant to the interests of the country if we do not stand by those who stand by us. We must take care that no more patronage shall be put into the hands of any man to be abused. It is time we speak aloud and let our friends know that they shall not be sacrificed because they stand by Congress, because they are not tools of a recreant President. [Great excitement.] I have authentic information that this very day this very course has been taken by the Secretary of the Treasury, and he has declared distinctly that in Pennsylvania he will consult nobody but a recreant apostate Senator who has betrayed his party and his country."

Subsequently Stevens of Pennsylvania, withdrew his amendment, having, as Morrill suggested, accomplished his purpose in making his speech. Very earnest efforts are being made to pass the Colorado bill over the veto and it is claimed that several senators heretofore opposed to the admission will vote for it. The question comes up on Tuesday, May 29th, when, if not sure to pass, it will be postponed.

It seems to be the well settled opinion in official quarters, that Davis' trial will be postponed till [illegible] October. There seems to be good authority for denying the statement which has been extensively published that a new indictment against Davis has been drawn up in the Attorney General's office by a special messenger to Washington and that Judge Underwood's indictment would be quashed. It is not improbable, however, that some changes will be made in the indictment presented by the Norfolk Grand Jury. Mrs. Davis has been in receipt of a large number of calls to-day. The President has granted her permission to remain with her husband at Fortress Monroe. Burton Harrison, Davis' Private Secretary, also arrived to-night in company with one of Davis' counsel.

WASHINGTON, May 28th.—In the Senate Wilson of Massachusetts, Henderson of Missouri, Van Winkle of West Virginia, Johnson of Maryland and Buckalew of Pennsylvania were appointed a special committee to investigate the condition of the National Banks.

The proceedings were unimportant, and at 1:30 P. M. the Senate went into executive session.

The Senate caucus renewed its session this morning and also in the evening. There was a full attendance but no vote was taken or any definite conclusion reached, the various Senators having previously expressed their views on the reconstruction programme. Fessenden of Maine, Howard of Michigan and Grimes of Iowa were appointed a committee to draft the report on the same. Neither Doolittle of Wisconsin, Dixon of Connecticut nor Cowan of Pennsylvania were invited to attend the caucus.

The House finally passed the tax bill by a vote of 100 to 11. The nays being Boyer, of Pennsylvania, Chandler of New York, Eldridge of Missouri, Grider of Kentucky, Harding, of Kentucky, Niblack of Indiana, Trimble of Kentucky, Marshall of Illinois, Ross of Illinois, Ritter of Kentucky and Wright of New Jersey. The bill is the most bulky that ever passed Congress, covering over two hundred pages and having a total of 80,000 lines. There have been 57 amendments made since the bill was reported from the Committee on Ways and Means. The clause levying a special tax of ten per cent on the mines struck out in the committee of the whole, was restored in the House. The amendment to prevent the publication of income returns was lost by fifty five to sixty-six, and the new law is like the present. The amendment recently discussed in the Senate, for limiting the President's power of removal from office, was defeated by 61 to 60, on the ground that it was not germain to the bill.

The President has nominated to the Senate Wm. Faxon, now Chief Clerk of the Navy Department, to be Assistant Secretary of the Navy in place of Capt. Fox, who has resigned. Captain Fox has been nominated as third additional assistant Secretary, for a period of six months, under the law recently passed. The commission of Gen. Sickles as Minister to the Hague, was sent to him on Saturday. He has not yet signified his acceptance.

Cholera Disappearing.

NEW YORK, May 26.—There have been no deaths recently from cholera on board the hospital ship Falcon and the patients are nearly all well.

A Destructive Fire.

CHICAGO, May 29.—A most destructive fire occurred at Oil City, Pa., May 24th, destroying the whole east side of the town, consisting of seventy five stores, eight Hotels and forty dwellings, a church and a seminary. Loss $1,000,000. The large wholesale drug store of Peters & Blows and the printing establishment of Dudley & Co., of St. Louis were destroyed by fire on Saturday morning. Loss $252,000.

Adjournment of Tennessee Legislature.

CHICAGO, May 29.—The Tennessee Legislature adjourned yesterday until the 5th of November, and will adjourn sine die on the first Monday of December.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—The race to-day at Bay View Park, between Rosa Livingston and Latham was won by the latter. The last heat was made by Latham in 2:37½.

J. B. Cavalier has been elected President of the San Francisco Stock and Exchange Board, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of O. H. Grimes.

A. T. Langton, a patient at the Stockton Insane Asylum, recently escaped and was re-captured here yesterday while wandering about.

A dispatch from Capt. Poston, dated Washington, May 20, to his brother, S. J. Poston, who is now in this city, announces that Gen. Grant has ordered three additional regiments of troops to Arizona.

Yesterday afternoon a sailor was observed to lie down on the sidewalk in front of the New Orleans Warehouse on California street, but the people in the vicinity supposing him to be intoxicated, did not disturb him until nearly dark, when upon attempting to arouse him he was discovered to be dead.

No Eastern report to-day.

Gold—Legal Tenders—Foreign Financial Matters.

Quotations come over the wires as follows: May 26th, 138, May 28th, 137¾; May 29th, 137⅝@138; May 30th, 138. Gold for delivery was reported scarce. Exchange was comparatively neglected, owing to the heavy shipments of gold to England. Upon the strength of these quotations there has been quite a rally in the market for legal tenders. The opening prices were 73@74. The market subsequently advanced to 74½@75, with light offerings.

London dates to May 17th had been received in New York. The panic had abated, and financial and commercial affairs were rapidly improving. The failure of the Commercial Bank of India in London is announced by telegraph, and bills drawn by the Agency in this city against shipments of treasure to China have been returned. A late advertisement in the local papers gives notice that the Agency in this city ceased to exist after May 29th ult., by order of the Board of Directors. Silver in London had advanced to 61 pence per ounce under an improved demand for the Continent.

News from China.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—By the bark Fannie Palmer we have China dates to April 13th. The Hongkong Daily Press of April 13th says: An affray took place at Sowchwang. Certain Chinese, whether officials or otherwise does not appear, forcibly took possession of a boy in the service of the American Consul; the Consul and some companions proceeded to the rescue, when they were fired upon and wounded. Next day the Consul obtained a force of forty or fifty persons and pulled down the houses of the Chinamen concerned in the outrage, killing three in the affray. A letter from Shanghae states that Mr. Grant had contracted with a Chinaman for the conveyance of telegraphic communication with Europe by way of Kiakhta. The newly arrived English Governor of Hongkong met with a serious accident, by falling, on the 10th of April.

Mining Share Markets.

The mining share market appears badly demoralized. Most of the speculative descriptions are down flat from the morning board yesterday. Chollar Potosi $65, Ophir, $50; Yellow Jacket, $35; Belcher, 31; Savage, $25, Bullion, $7 60; Imperial, $5 50 and Overman $1. Crown Point alone rose $5.

The Markets.

Coal oil—market is drooping. Eastern is quoted at 75@77½c per gallon. Sales of 100 cases Devoe's, private. Pure spirits—15,000 gallons refined, at $2 15 per gallon. Double refined is quotable at $2 30. Teas—sales of 1,000 pkgs Japan, private. Quotable at 65@80c. Flour—superfine half sacks per bbl $5@$5 25, quarter sacks $5 25@$5 50, extra half sacks $6 25@$6 50, quarter sacks $5 50@$5 75. Wheat—under light receipts the market retains a firm tone. Sales include 250 sacks choice, $1 72½@$1 80, do, $1 75 per 100 lbs. Barley—sales of 450 sacks brewing for export to New York, at 87½c per 100 lbs. Oats—market is weak; sales of 700 sacks good, at $1 70, and 300 sks choice at $1 85 per 100lbs. Potatoes—new Mission remain at $1 @ 100lbs, old are irregular and prices nominal.

Arrived—May 31st, bark Frances Palmer, 45 days from Hong Kong, bark Jenny 19 days from Teekalet, bark Mary 12 days from Bellingham Bay.

WHY IS HE NOT EXPELLED?—While the Civil Rights Bill was under debate in the Senate, Garrett Davis, of Kentucky said:

> If this bill passes, I shall henceforth consider myself an alien to your Government, and I will devote the remaining years of my life to pulling that Government down.

The bill passed, and so Garrett Davis, according to his own words, is an alien to our Government, whose declared purpose it is "to devote the remaining years of his life to pulling that government down." Is this man fit to hold the high office of Senator of the United States? Why is he not expelled? He owes his seat entirely to the extraordinary forbearance of the Senate which he has insulted. He has given ample cause for his expulsion.

GENERAL GRANT'S OPINIONS.—General Grant in a recent conversation with the Rev. George Hepworth, of Boston, said of General Sherman: "Sherman is a man to be proud of. He is impetuous, he is faulty, but he shows his own fault as soon as any man." And of Sheridan, he said: "He is the best man in America. He has no peer. He can wield any force. He is pure hearted, simple mannered and a truly noble man." And of himself, he said: "There were a thousand others who could have done the thing as well as I. I am thankful to God that he helped me to do the work, but had I not been living, or had the Government passed over me, there are other men who would have won the victory for you."

"The Paramount Law of God."

The Herald of Friday says of the author of the Civil Rights law:

> He drafted a bill which his party passed into a law, making it a misdemeanor, punishable by enormous fine and imprisonment, for a white man to recognize the paramount law of God in any of his social or civil relations to the colored race.

If this isn't an enunciation of the "higher law" doctrine which the Democracy have always professed to hate so heartily, then we submit that such a doctrine was never before heard of. So then, that which by Democratic interpretation is the "paramount law of God," is to supercede the constitutionally enacted laws of this Government proscribing and enforcing the civil rights of the citizen. The Democracy finding it impossible to successfully defend the position they take against the doctrine of "equal rights before the law," fall back upon the "higher law" argument, and contend that the principle of protecting all persons in the enjoyment of equal civil rights is in contravention of the "paramount law of God." And what is the "paramount law of God," profanely so called by the apostle of Democracy, Beriah Brown? According to the Democratic idea of the "paramount law of God," the right belongs to a white man to deprive the negro of his lawfully earned wages and of the right to sue to collect them. This "paramount law of God" gives a white person the right to assault a negro, and denies the negro the means of redressing the wrong. By this "paramount law of God" that which is a crime in a negro, is no offense in a Democrat whose skin is white. Under this same "paramount law of God," it is a crime for a colored person to hold property and to have the right to defend it. The "paramount law of God" makes it wrong for him to endeavor to acquire knowledge or to raise himself to respectability. The "paramount law of God" makes it the duty of the white man to oppress him, to thrust him down to a still lower degradation, to deal with him as if he were a brute beast instead of a human being, and in every possible way to carry out the Democratic idea that he "has no rights which any one is bound to respect." This is the Democratic "higher law" and religiously do they endeavor to enforce it. But this monstrous doctrine, instead of being the "paramount law of God," will always be thought by men who have in them a spark of humanity or the smallest sense of justice, to be the paramount law of the Evil One.

An Inquiry.

The average [illegible] Weekly Oregonian is double that published by any other [illegible] in Oregon [illegible] and the Markets [illegible] more especially in [illegible] Oregon [illegible] part of the United States [illegible]

THE FUTURE [illegible] In recurring to this subject we [illegible] public the necessity for taking [illegible] place at this [illegible] In the course of natural events changes pass [illegible] one another very imperceptibly [illegible] to realize the [illegible] a great empire [illegible] the motions of change [illegible] with impatience [illegible] growth, whisper [illegible] there is none [illegible] there is a [illegible] throughout all the [illegible] by no effort [illegible] the distant [illegible] river. In 1792, when [illegible] Gray [illegible] fresh water [illegible] known concerning the great stream. Yet it was this [illegible] such has been full [illegible] We have seen that the starting [illegible] in the great trade of the east with China, [illegible] the mining districts along the banks of the Columbia and the yet unused [illegible] agricultural lands [illegible] people might not be able to reap a reward for their [illegible] this country? Looking forward [illegible] for distant when we shall see a line of railroad [illegible] the Northern Pacific [illegible] grasp the Columbia [illegible] with the Father [illegible] at a future [illegible] Since that period the [illegible] we formerly regarded these [illegible] of the wealth [illegible] an evidence of [illegible] With a [illegible] supplies the [illegible] the industrial pursuits [illegible] the proposition that our mountains valleys and [illegible] are ample to support an industrious, enterprising [illegible] people. In consequence of the undeveloped [illegible] of our resources and in many cases the unstable character of our people, there has not been a fair [illegible] in the decrease of imports from the Atlantic States, and on the other hand, with an increase of population on account of the discovery of new mining regions, there is scarcely an item of commerce which has not been materially augmented. During the past great struggle for the maintenance of the integrity of this Union, while most [illegible] States were reaping benefits from the contest, in consequence of the demand made upon them for war material, no such benefits were obtained by the States of the Pacific coast but by the export of precious metals [illegible] the activity and solvency of the great trade [illegible] on the Eastern side. During all this time the people of the coast were looking forward to the advent of [illegible] with the hope of a large and immediate accession to the population of their States. The hope has but partially been fulfilled and the reason assigned why people [illegible] come in larger numbers is that they [illegible] the [illegible] people of the East do not generally understand the great superiority of our climate, our agricultural and mineral resources and the many excellences that go to make a desirable country to live in. Whatever the press, the people, or public legislative bodies can do, to disseminate correct knowledge of the manifold resources of the country will be practicable progress in the right direction towards acquiring what we most need—a permanent and industrious population. We shall look for a very great and rapid increase in the commerce of the Pacific States to follow on the opening of regular steam communication with China. Such has always been the case whenever the United States has placed her marine [illegible] to compete with that of other nations. We have not the necessary space to devote to statistics furnished by Congress on our commercial relations to prove the truth of this statement but will simply refer to a few instances, showing that steam intercourse with the West India Islands increased our commerce therewith in seven years—from 1853 to 1860—from about $40,000,000 to upwards of $60,000,000, while the British, which was over $30,000, in 1853, increased to only about $42,000,000 in the same period. In Cuba, where our steam communication was best established, our exchanges went from $[illegible] in 1853, to $40,428,434 in 1861, and this in the face of an almost prohibitory duty on flour, our chief export to that Island. The British exchanges for the same period remained about stationary. No one has a doubt about the good effects to result from the establishment of steam communication between the Pacific coast and China—and there is much reason to expect that the expansion of our commerce on a scale that may be [illegible] by judicious management will afford ample employment for all the railroads that may be constructed across the continent, and that too, before the first one is [illegible] worked as expeditiously as the projectors may [illegible] from all these great commercial enterprises is there not the most liberal encouragement for the future of the Pacific coast?

STEAM TO MONTANA.—As will be seen by advertisement in our columns this morning the steamer Mary Moody Capt. Robert Gopels will leave her landing at Pend d'Oreille lake daily, Sundays excepted, for Cabinet rapids, on the Clark fork of the Columbia, east of the Cabinet [illegible]. Passage is placed at $5 and freight [illegible] per pound. This is the first steamer in the line of the OREGON AND MONTANA TRANSPORTATION COMPANY. The land travel which is obviated by this stretch of navigation is the worst portion of the route between the Columbia river and the Missouri. It is 70 miles from [illegible] Ferry to the foot of the Cabinet rapids where a portage is made of 3 miles, and a second steamer will be employed by this new company to navigate to Thompson Falls, a distance of 56 miles. Here a second portage, half a mile in extent is made, and a third steamer will run to the Jocko, 65 miles distant, leaving the balance of travel and transportation to be done over good wagon roads. When these connections are completed we shall [illegible] three or four days from the Jocko, and less than [illegible] days from the richest and most famous regions of Montana. The necessary machinery for the second and third steamers has already been contracted [illegible] will be shipped on Monday next, hence the route will be opened and in the most successful operation by [illegible] Messrs. Abrams and Moody left this morning for that section, after having completed all arrangements for immediately commencing work. The steamer Mary Moody is said to be a fine craft, but she was built under most adverse circumstances. The lumber, of which she was constructed, was standing timber on New Year's day last, and was so frozen that the logs had to be slabbed with an axe before the workmen could saw it into boards, and this last process was done entirely with whip saws. Too much cannot be said in praise of the gentlemen who have thus far pushed this most gigantic enterprise to a successful end. The carpenters engineers and workmen equally deserve great credit for their perseverance in the trying hours of the labor performed. What a commentary is the operations of this new transportation line on the acts of newspaper writers and others who have continually forced their opinions upon the public that this route could never be successfully opened.

SPEAKING BY VETERANS.—Last night while the friends of rebel soldiers were around at Oro Fino Hall listening [illegible] "Skookum," there was a rousing meeting of Union men of the true stamp at Union Hall to listen to speeches made by veterans, some of whom bear the scars inflicted by Democratic "brethren" of the South. The simple truthful narratives of those old veterans in the cause of the Union, were of more value to the people showing the real living issues of this campaign, than the utterances of all the Democratic champions this side of the eternal regions. The manner was so plain and straightforward, that no skulking sneak of a Copperhead dare deny the truth of the statements made. If [illegible] wish a truthful history of the late terrible war [illegible] one of those battle scarred veterans about it. If [illegible] should have any serious doubts as to who were the friends of the country during that trial time ask them and they will answer you that it was none of the Democratic leaders of 1860—none of those who helped the Copperhead ticket in Oregon. If you want to learn plainly and without varnished argument who George B. McClellan was, they will tell you that he was as much a rebel as Robert E. Lee and prove it by referring to dates and incidents, fresh in their memories. Talk about Copperheads being Union men! It is [illegible] use a Democratic argument. Talk at [illegible] them being friends to the soldier—it is the sheerest nonsense.

AN OLD "SPORT" CAPTURED.—A friend in New York [illegible] us a paper containing an account of a heavy swindling operation at Chicago in which John S. Livingstone formerly a sport of this city acted as principal. Livingstone was arrested on the requisition of Gov. Fenton of New York and taken East for trial. He is charged with swindling clothiers of New York out of a stock valued at [illegible] 000 and came near being successful.

UNION TO NIGHT.—The speaking by Union men to-night, in front of the Lincoln [illegible] will be worth attending. A rousing rally will take place. Union men remember it. [illegible] Hawk, Hon. J. H. Mitchell and others will address the people. That old battle-flag will be there. Ladies—everybody are invited.

WOOD AFLOAT.—A pile of about ten cords of [illegible] wood yesterday gave way at the [illegible] pressure of the rise in the river and floated sluggishly about over Couch & Flanders's wharf. The owner became greatly excited in his efforts to arrest the stock but finally succeeded in securing it all and placed [illegible] floating [illegible]

THE FRESHET.—Yesterday at noon the tide guage showed a rise of five inches above that of Thursday and still coming. The water was [illegible] Phil[illegible] predict that the river will soon be before the water reaches Front street. We have little doubt that it is [illegible] so, but trust [illegible]

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—Rev. A. C. McDougall of the California Conference will preach in the M. E. Church of this city Sabbath morning at 10½ o'clock. Rev. G. G. [illegible] will preach in the evening at 7 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

THE DALLES.—A grand Union rally will be held at the Dalles to-night. The Mocha [illegible] Brass Band will be in attendance.

FIRE WORKS.—H. Martin & Co. are now prepared as will be seen by advertisement [illegible] all orders for the [illegible] essential to a celebration of the Fourth of July.

EXCURSION.—The steamer [illegible] Trout it is expected will make an excursion trip to Vancouver to-morrow.

Letter from Aurora

A[illegible] May [illegible] 186[illegible]

EDITORS OREGONIAN:

[illegible] Hawk [illegible] addressed a large and [illegible] enthusiastic audience [illegible] evening [illegible] [illegible] the only which came into Oregon [illegible] was [illegible] exhibited [illegible] the 13th Pennsylvania Regiment in the first Bull Run battle, saying that Jake Conser had offered three groans for this flag when he (the C[illegible]) showed it at Sal[illegible]. Now said he, what do you think ought to be done with Conser? Give him three groans was the answer, and I would give him three rousing and vehement groans which he, although present, did not attempt to answer. With the groaning for Jake the afternoon exercise closed.

In the evening the county candidates spoke. Mr. Nickell opening the discussion followed by Jake in a speech of nearly an hour's length in which he complained himself like a man—[illegible] of the Democracy—but Mr. N. [illegible] then came down on him with a [illegible] his speech. Mr. Br[illegible] was the man that cut [illegible] work for Jake [illegible] the Jones family even [illegible] in winding up he gave Mr. Kaiser [illegible] him up. He proved by Mr. R. F. Bonney [illegible] who was a Democrat at the time that [illegible] Savage candidate [illegible] organization of the Salem [illegible] Minute Men [illegible] society had arms and ammunition enough to last them two years. The object of the organization was to resist the draft. &c. This little bit of [illegible] took the wind of the copperhead sails so that they have not been able to sail any since.

Idaho News

The following news is from the Idaho Statesman of the 24th and 26th ult.

VIGILANTE OPERATIONS.

There has been a rumor about out for several days that a man by the name of Stocking and one whose alias was Stockton Jim were hung at Little Camas Prairie. We have been able to trace the rumor to no reliable source, but it is generally believed. Stocking will be remembered as one of a couple of men who were engaged in cattle stealing in this valley about a year ago. His partner was recently hung in Montana by the vigilantes. Stockton Jim and Stocking have turned their attention to horse stealing of late with a rendezvous out on Snake river.

THE QUARTZ MILLS.

The Pittsburg and Idaho Company's mill is idle and has been most of the time for the past six months. Major Spear the Superintendent, has recently returned and will go to work soon.

The Waddingham Mill has perhaps made a better [illegible] for the amount of rock crushed than any in the camp. They will soon go to work vigorously and probably without any further interruption as we have heard that Mr. Waddingham has accomplished in the East all he could desire, and will probably return soon. If energy, perseverance and enterprise entitle a man to success he certainly deserves more than most men.

At Red Warrior the Victor Company's Mill (Captain Nelson Superintendent) and the Harris and Benson Mills will start in a few days. Both companies are taking out good rock and will start under favorable auspices.

AN INDIAN RAID.

News came from Ruby last night of another Indian raid made principally upon Chinamen. A messenger came from Major Marshall from Camp Lyon with the statement that a Chinaman had come into that camp reporting that he was the only one of a party of fifty known to have escaped an attack on their camp at four miles beyond the California ferry on the Owyhee river. There were also two white men with the Chinamen and all are supposed to be killed. Lieutenant Pepoon started immediately for the spot and found twenty five dead bodies there corroborating in the main the story of the Chinaman. Lieutenant Pepoon sent a messenger back to Camp Lyon who has followed in hopes to overtake the Indians. The massacre is supposed to have occurred last Monday or Tuesday.

A STRONG PARALLEL.—The President cannot admit Colorado of the Union because eleven States are unrepresented in Congress. Was Tennessee one of these States represented in Congress when he consented to be a candidate for the Vice Presidency of a party confined to the twenty five loyal States? He was elected with the "Rump Congress," and must, therefore, be a "Rump" President. Why don't the President carry this principle to its logical results by offering his resignation, that the eleven rebel States may have an opportunity to participate in the election of a President as well as a Vice President? Surely if the status of Congressmen is affected by the surrender of the rebel armies that of the Presidency and Vice Presidency is also changed. If the rebels have a right to demand a new deal it must not be confined to Congress. How can Johnson consent to remain President when his State is unrepresented in Congress? The rebels of Tennessee ought to denounce him for his recreancy to State Rights.—Marysville Appeal.

From Richmond I went down the James River to Fortress Monroe. On the way objects of interest were pointed out, [illegible] Butler's Dutch Gap Canal, [illegible] [illegible] City Point. [illegible] the best white settlement in the New World, Newport News. [illegible] introduction [illegible] enter the Fortress, where [illegible] that I met the great rebel [illegible] taking [illegible] daily walk on the ramparts under the escort of an officer. He was allowed two minutes to talk with him, and I had a good view of him as he passed me. He was well dressed and light [illegible] a few hours. His eye was clear and his step firm, and his bearing erect [illegible] Roman soldier. [illegible] indulged in the recreation [illegible] his [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] officer.

As a general rule, [illegible] in his apartment employs his time in writing, reading, and [illegible]. [illegible] very quiet and glum and rarely speaks to [illegible] others. He freely expresses his opinions about the generals, and had some on both sides. He thinks McClellan was our greatest General and says Grant [illegible] a better [illegible] but a butcher [illegible] good natured man but a jackass. Andrew Johnson is pretty smart and [illegible] the best thing [illegible] man. He thinks his capture was very unfair, as he was fairly [illegible] and Johnson's [illegible] said that if he had any idea of being taken he [illegible] have made his escape. He was terribly enraged at what Foote of Mississippi said of him and declared [illegible] constitutional liar—that he [illegible] often told him so, and he was glad when he escaped from the Confederacy, and that he gave orders to let him go and not [illegible] him, adding "I was glad to get rid of such a nuisance."

The Duke of Marlborough, Jeff says, [illegible] his Sovereign—taught successfully under the banners of another Prince, and his name has come down in history as one of the noblest men and greatest of Generals of his time. But Marshal Ney, one of Napoleon's famous Generals, who after the banishment of Napoleon to Elba, gave in his adhesion to the ruling powers, and again joined his chief on his return, [illegible] after his final overthrow [illegible] and shot as a traitor.

His commentary upon those historic facts was this—Treason never prospers—for when it does none dare call it treason.

It is no consequence to any one to know from what source or by what means I derived my information concerning the sayings and doings of this bold, bad man. I can only say the recital is perfectly true and to be relied upon.—Correspondence of an Eastern paper.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

WEEKLY REVIEW

PORTLAND, June 1st 1866

The near approach to the day of inaugurating steam communication between the Pacific coast and China is a matter of great importance to the future of the Pacific coast—a subject frequently referred to in the columns of the OREGONIAN—and the benefits to be derived from it will be difficult to estimate. The following facts and figures, which have been carefully compiled and published in the San Francisco Bulletin, will serve to give an idea of the growth of the trade between California and China during the past ten years. We Quote:

The exports to China show a steady increase from $239,912 in 1856 to $1,379,100 in 1866, or a total for the ten years of $7,084,176. The exports of treasure to the same country have increased from $1,558,854 in 1856 to $6,854,126 for 1865, or a total for the past ten years of $37,795,064. These figures not only show the growing importance of the trade with China, but in are particularly of the import trade, which, as is well know, is largely made up of rice, sugar, tea, &c. The value of the imports for the past year was $2,059,784. The export trade with China is largely made up of breadstuffs, and this feature is every succeeding year becoming more marked. In 1856 we shipped hence neither barley, oats or wheat, and only 4,422 bbls flour. The exports of these articles for the past year were as follows: flour 30,091 bbls; wheat, 139,043 sks; barley 2,027 sks; oats, 18,258 sks. To show how this branch of the export trade with that country has increased during the past five years over the previous five, observe these figures:

	1856-60.	1861-65.
Flour, bbls	44,001	140,650
Wheat, sks	48,229	425,018
Barley, sks	2,060	2,917
Oats, sks	8,707	10,121

For the purpose of showing in detail the above figures, the following table is given:

Years.	Flour, bbls	Wheat, 100lb sks	Barley, 100lb sks	Oats 100lb sks
1856	4,422
1857	4,403		60	3,0
1858
1859	9,406	2,552		60
1860	24,910	24,019	2,020	8,0?7
1861	10,524	21,640		1,240
1862	21,481	31,191	600	270
1863	60,065	180,610	100	5,310
1864	36,996	63,772	100	1,2?0
1865	30,091	139,043	2,347	1,882
	192,568	471,839	6,057	18,8?8

This table presents the importance of the China markets for our breadstuffs in a very favorable light. As will be seen, the largest shipments were in 1863. Last year Australia presented a better market for breadstuffs, and hence the shipment to China was not so large, perhaps as it otherwise would have been. The Chinese show no aversion to using wheat instead of rice, provided it can be furnished them at as cheap a price proportionately.

To show how the export and import trade with China have kept pace with each other for the last ten years we give in detail the value of the merchandise and treasure exports to that country during this period:

Years	Merchandise exports	Treasure exports
1856	$239,912	$1,559,852
1857	313,836	2,093,204
1858	221,508	1,916,607
1859	252,061	2,100,756
1860	923,810	3,074,620
1862	721,229	2,660,784
1863	1,246,254	4,866,770
1864	1,374,198	7,828,073
1865	1,376,100	6,854,126
	$7,184,570	$37,795,064

The tonnage movement between two ports is generally regarded as a pretty correct indication of trade, and in many cases this is the fact. But not so as between the port of San Francisco and China, for a large amount of inward tonnage comes in ballast seeking, and not a little of the outward tonnage clearing for China loads at Puget Sound and elsewhere. With this explanation we may state, that the inward tonnage from China has increased from 21,110 tons in 1856, to 35,998 tons in 1865, averaging 27,974 tons per year, and aggregating for the ten years 279,741 tons. The outward tonnage during the same period has been 435,592. In detail these figures are as follows:

Years	Inward tonnage	Outward tonnage
1856	21,110	72,334
1857	31,124	48,313
1858	20,379	48,509
1859	27,814	47,519
1860	23,577	21,536
1861	28,286	24,099
1862	37,253	53,469
1863	32,588	38,821
1864	23,110	44,906
1865	35,998	70,342
	279,741	435,592

As will be seen, the great bulk of this trade has been during the past five years, when the merchandise exports to China amounted to $5,470,690 against $1,658,780 for the previous five years; and the treasure exports to $2,151,502 against $12,593,650. The merchandise exports to China last year were the highest ever reached, and the treasure exports were but little below those for the preceding year. A large portion of the treasure shipments to China, it is well known, is for account of New York, London and other foreign financial centres, and are not to be viewed as an offset to Oriental merchandise received directly in California.

The passenger movement between California and China also presents some interesting features. The figures show that the number of Chinese landed on these shores from 1849 to 1855 was 44,511. The total number landed here from 1856 to 1865, inclusive, is 65,031, of whom 27,212 returned during the same period. The immigration during the last year or two has fallen off considerably, while the emigration in proportion has been on the increase.

The money market is without change. Lenders are not free in their offers. We hear of bank failures and the suspension of commercial houses occasionally, of late, at the East—the result generally of wild speculation and reckless ventures—yet they have their significance to the careful and thoughtful observer of events, and the matter has a two-fold bearing since the condition of affairs have become placed in thorough [illegible] on account of the trouble between Prussia and Austria, which has forced loans upon European markets of such magnitude as to seriously affect financial transactions in America.

Wholesale and Jobbing Prices.

PORTLAND, June 1st 1866

The market for the past week has displayed an improved tendency over the week previous, remarking about which the trade circular of Messrs. McCracken, Merrill & Co., dated May 28th, says:

We are pleased to note more activity in our market for the past few days, owing, no doubt, to the improved condition of the roads to the mining districts. We learn that freight is now taken from Umatilla to Idaho City and other towns in that vicinity at six cents per pound, and from Wallula to Pend Oreille Lake, on the Montana route (to connect with the steamer Mary Moody, now running) at five and a half cents, and from White Bluffs to the Lake at five cents. It is believed that from the number of teams and trains waiting cargo, on the different points, even lower rates will obtain. The return of Montana freight trains is daily looked for at Wallula and White Bluffs, when we may expect large orders from that section. We learn that the new steamer "40," running from Colville to the Big Bend, [illegible] the trip successfully, [illegible] the round voyage in four and a half days, which determines this to be the quickest, cheapest and pleasantest route to the Big Bend.

There has been some change in prices of Oregon produce which we shall note under their appropriate heads. Two thousand five hundred barrels of flour were shipped by the steamers Orizaba and Montana for San Francisco, which it will relieve our market to the extent. It is however improbable that it will bring the price there at which it was held here at this time.

Case goods, which comprise a great variety of articles, such as pickles, preserves, and [illegible] fruits, vegetables, meats, oysters, etc., have been suffering a heavy loss for more than a year past, and prices of some declining to such a low rate that it would take at pay to ship them back whence they came. A prominent cause of the depression of these goods, apart from the collapse of gold, is the growth of the local production. We have establishments in this city devoted to pickling, preserving, and canning, and the goods we have mentioned, except oysters. The goods put up by them are equal to any imported [illegible] and are sold as cheap as they can be bought in the Eastern markets, [illegible] of freights [illegible] interest.

Domestic Produce Market.

PORTLAND, June 1st 1866

Shipments of produce have been free for the mining regions the past week, but the market is nominally unchanged. Grain is without alteration. Flour has declined [illegible] per barrel for the choicest brands and other brands are correspondingly lower.

There is a better supply of butter on the market. Butter is freely offered, in small lots, and prices are rather unsettled.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS

READ AND REFLECT.

Make sure of HEALTH. "But how?" you ask;
We answer, 'tis an easy task.
Strengthen the Stomach, and sustain
The Nerves, the servants of the brain.
The Liver keep in active play
And regulate from day to day
Each organ aid, on Nature's plan,
Brace and refresh the INNER MAN
And like a watch that's kept in chime
Its constant care with railroad time,
The system's tone and strength renew,
And thus thy cheer the spirits too.
"How?" you inquire—"can this be done?
This Victory o'er Disease be won?"
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS! we reply,
IS HEALTH'S SUPREME PROTECTION—TRY!

As a means of regenerating the disordered and enfeebled system, regulating every function of the internal organs, reviving the depressed spirits, invigorating the constitution and prolonging life, no medicinal preparation either of the past or the present time has been so completely and universally successful as

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

Against the vapors foul prepare the benefit of the public that JACOB MAYER

leased the building of me Feb. 17, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were Coin. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly for the rent of the making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He has secured the building at very advantageous rates, and

I now wish to comply with his con-

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once refreshed, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man, he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGE AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

WATER WHEELS.
POWER PLEDGED EQUAL
TO THE
Best Overshot Wheel in Existence

LEFFEL'S

American Double Turbine Water Wheel

IS NOW MANUFACTURED BY THE OREGON IRON Works, in the city of Portland, and orders for the same can be filled immediately. We have a small supply of the different sizes, from 10 inches to 46 inches in diameter. That we may know the proper sized wheel you require, measure your water in the following way: Take the width of the stream, the average depth, and the distance it flows in a minute.

All the wheels now in use give universal satisfaction. Both the construction of the wheel and its performance commend it to the better judgment of all minds capable of appreciating the highest development of mechanical construction. Therefore it has conquered the most violent opposition.

This wheel is especially adapted to mining purposes. It is light, and can be easily packed into the mountains. Wheels weighing from 100 to 300 pounds will yield from 10 to 40 horse power, under a head of 25 or 30 feet. They are the cheapest wheel to set up known, as they are so arranged as to produce the greatest power possible from the water used.

The prices of these wheels have now been reduced to the ability of all. Come and see them or send for a circular to LEFFEL & MYERS,
